6 "Sec. 202. RCW 28A.225.020 and 1986 c 132 s 2 are each amended to 7 read as follows:

8 If a juvenile required to attend school under the laws of the state
9 of Washington fails to attend school without valid justification
10 (~~((recurrently or for an extended period of time))~~), the juvenile's 11 school(~~(, where appropriate,)~~) shall:

12 (1) Inform the juvenile's custodial parent, parents or guardian by 13 a notice in writing in English and, if different, in the primary 14 language of the custodial parent, parents or guardian and by other 15 means reasonably necessary to achieve notice of the fact that the 16 juvenile has failed to attend school without valid justification
17 (~~((recurrently or for an extended period of time))~~) after one unexcused 18 absence;

19 (2) Schedule a conference or conferences with the custodial parent, 20 parents or guardian and juvenile at a time and place reasonably 21 convenient for all persons included for the purpose of analyzing the 22 causes of the juvenile's absences; and

23 (3) Take steps to eliminate or reduce the juvenile's absences.
24 These steps shall include, where appropriate, adjusting the juvenile's 25 school program or school or course assignment, providing more 26 individualized or remedial instruction, preparing the juvenile for 27 employment with specific vocational courses or work experience, or 28 both, and assisting the parent or student to obtain supplementary

1 services that might eliminate or ameliorate the cause or causes for the 2 absence from school."

3 Renumber the remaining sections of Part II consecutively and 4 correct any internal references accordingly.
