1 AN ACT Relating to the study of ethanol for supplemental energy
2 production; creating new sections; and making an appropriation.

3 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

4 NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the state of 5 Washington must now begin to provide for energy independence. It 6 further finds the goals of energy self-sufficiency, environmental 7 improvement, and agricultural market expansion can be achieved by 8 establishing interdependent objectives. Therefore, the legislature 9 intends to establish a state commission that will study the 10 feasibility, use, and production of ethanol from organic feedstocks and 11 make recommendations to the legislature toward the goal of state energy 12 self-sufficiency.

13 NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The Washington state energy self-
14 sufficiency commission is established within the energy office to study

1 the production and use of ethanol within the state. The commission is 2 charged with studying the role of synthetic fuels by considering the 3 following issues:

4 (1) The kind and use of organic feedstocks to make the product;

5 (2) The feasibility, quality, and quantity of production within 6 Washington state;

7 (3) The actions necessary to encourage production in Washington
8 state;

9 (4) The effect of using an agricultural renewable resource on the 10 marketplace;

11 (5) The role of synthetic fuels in reaching the goal of clean air;

12 (6) The effect of synthetic fuels on gasoline burning motor 13 vehicles and other gasoline burning equipment; and

14 (7) The break-even point in producing synthetic fuels and natural 15 oil-based fuels.

16 NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) The Washington state energy self-
17 sufficiency commission shall consist of fourteen members, appointed by 18 the governor, composed of: Two agricultural producers whose products
19 would lend themselves to the production of synthetic fuels; one
20 producer of synthetic fuels; one representative from a large oil
21 company; one representative from the association of independent service
22 station dealers; one representative from the automobile manufacturing
23 industry; one representative of the Washington State University faculty 24 with expertise in developing and evaluating agricultural products; one 25 representative from a consumer group; the director of the department of 26 agriculture; the director of the energy office; two members from the 27 senate, one from each caucus, one of whom serves on the transportation
28 committee, appointed by the president of the senate; and two members
29 from the House of Representatives, one from each caucus, one of whom

1 serves on the agricultural committee and one of whom serves on the 2 energy committee, appointed by the speaker of the House of 3 Representatives.

4 (2) The members of the commission shall select the chair or 5 cochairs of the commission.

6 (3) Staff assistance for the commission will be provided by 7 legislature staff and from the agency and office listed in subsection
8 (1) of this section.

9 NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The Washington state energy self-
10 sufficiency commission shall develop an action plan that includes, but 11 is not limited to, a study of agricultural products for energy uses,
12 consultation with expert resource persons, effects of synthetic fuels 13 on existing products and desirable modifications, quantity of synthetic 14 fuels practical for various uses, a time line for putting synthetic 15 fuels on the market with a target date for the first ethanol
16 introduction of January 1993, and recommendations to the legislature on 17 the state's role in agricultural products energy uses. The first 18 meeting of the commission shall be convened by the director of the 19 energy office. The commission shall meet no less than four times a 20 year. The commission shall submit its action plan to the legislature
21 on December 1, 1991, and its final report on December 1, 1992.

22 NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Washington state energy self-sufficiency 23 commission members shall serve for the life of the commission which 24 shall terminate March 1, 1993. The members shall not be compensated
25 for membership on the commission, other than for reasonable travel
26 expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

1 NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The sum of 2 dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated from 3 the general fund to the energy office for the biennium ending June 30,
4 1993, for the purposes of the Washington state energy self-sufficiency 5 commission.
