Background: In 1992, the Legislature authorized 12 new superior court positions in King County. The new positions were conditioned upon the county documenting its approval of the positions and its agreement to pay the county's share of funding for the positions. The county was authorized to phase in the filling of the new positions over time, but not beyond July 1, 1996.

Currently, King County has filled three of the 12 authorized superior court positions. King County is requesting that the time to fill the remaining nine judicial positions be extended.

Summary of Bill: The July 1, 1996, deadline for filling the authorized King County Superior Court positions is extended to July 1, 2006.

Appropriation: None.

Fiscal Note: Not requested.

Effective Date: Ninety days after adjournment of session in which bill is passed.

Testimony For: By instituting administrative efficiencies, King County has reduced its immediate need for additional positions.

Testimony Against: None.

Testified: Dale Ramerman, Presiding Judge, King County Superior Court (pro).
