

HB 1787 - DIGEST

Declares an intent to improve disclosure to voters by requiring, as part of the communication, identification of the controlling person and top contributors in instances where an individual or entity establishes one or more political committees as a vehicle to receive and pass through funds.