

HB 1855 - DIGEST

Requires disclosure of tax information on customer billings issued by certain cable television businesses, light or power businesses, gas distribution businesses, solid waste collection businesses, or telecommunications service businesses.

Provides a business and occupation tax exemption and a public utility tax exemption for the labor, software, and other costs to modify a business's billing system. These exemptions expire January 1, 2011.