

HB 1894 - DIGEST

Requires the state, upon the jurisdictional transfer of a public highway from city or county control to state control, to assume all responsibility with respect to the upgrade, deactivation, or removal of existing water or sewer pipelines beneath the public highway, provided that the pipelines met the applicable standards and requirements established by the transferring jurisdiction at the time of installation.