EFFECT:

- Restores good cause exemption eligibility for recipient parents to having a child under one year of age, rather than having a child under two years of age.
- Restores the current time limit regarding eligibility for this good cause exemption to a maximum of twelve months over the parent's lifetime, rather than twenty-four months.
- Requires recipient parents who are eligible for the good cause exemption to participate in one or more activities for a minimum of ten hours per week once the child reaches three months of age.

- Removes the June 30, 2013 expiration date regarding the good cause exemption for parent recipients with children under the age of one.
