

SB 6637 - DIGEST

Prohibits requiring an employee or prospective employee to submit passwords or other related account information in order to gain access to the employee's or prospective employee's account or profile on a social networking web site or to demand access in any manner to an employee's or prospective employee's account or profile on a social networking web site.