

HB 1831 - DIGEST

Requires self-insured employers, who maintain a place of business in this state, to keep complete records of all claims for workers' compensation administered by the employer.