9 On page 2, line 13 of the striking amendment after "Sec.3."
10 strike "State" and all language through "coordination." on line 20 11 and insert "State agencies providing or paying for early 12 intervention services shall enter into formal interagency 13 agreements with each other and where appropriate, with school 14 districts, counties, and other providers, to define their 15 relationships and financial and service responsibilities. Local 16 agencies or entities, including local school districts, counties, 17 and service providers receiving public money for providing or 18 paying for early intervention services shall enter into formal 19 interagency agreements with each other that define their 20 relationships and financial responsibilities to provide services 21 within each county. In establishing priorities, school district, 22 counties, and other service providers shall give due regard to the

1 needs of children birth to three and shall ensure that they 2 continue to participate in providing services and collaborate with 3 each other. The interagency agreements shall include procedures
4 for resolving disputes, provisions for establishing maintenance 5 requirements, and all additional components necessary to ensure 6 collaborating and coordination."

EFFECT: Clarifies relationships between state agencies and local service providers of services to disabled children between the ages of birth to three.
