6 "NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter
7 42.17 RCW under the subchapter heading of "campaign financing" to 8 read as follows:

9 (1) Under no circumstances may a candidate receive during an 10 election cycle in the aggregate more than:

11 (a) For a candidate for the office of governor, two million
12 two hundred thousand dollars;

13 (b) For a candidate for state executive office other than the 14 office of governor, eight hundred thousand dollars;

15 (c) For a candidate for the office of a member of the state
16 senate, ninety-five thousand dollars; and

17 (d) For a candidate for the office of a member of the state
18 house of representatives, fifty-five thousand dollars.

19 (2) For the purposes of this section, "election cycle" means 20 the period beginning on the first day of December following the 21 date of the last previous general election for the office which the 22 candidate seeks and ending on November thirtieth following the next
23 election for the office. In the case of a special election to fill 24 a vacancy in an office, "election cycle" means the period beginning
25 on the day the vacancy occurs and ending on November thirtieth

1 following the special election."
