Background: Throughout the Revised Code of Washington, there are numerous references to one who is under the influence of liquor or drugs. However, the words used to describe that influenced state are not used consistently. The criminal code describes an intoxicated driver as "under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug."

Summary of Bill: In various statutes, this measure replaces the word "intoxicated" with the phrase "under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug."

Technical changes are also made for organizational purposes.

Fiscal Note: Not requested.

Effective Date: Ninety days after adjournment of session in which bill is passed.

Testimony For: The bill is necessary to clarify that "intoxicated" refers to a condition that can be caused by alcohol or any drug.

Testimony Against: None.

Witnesses: Pete Youngers, New Beginnings (in favor).
