HOUSE COMMITTEE ON HUMAN SERVICES

Majority Report: Do pass. Signed by 11 members: Representatives Leonard, Chair; Riley, Vice Chair; Winsley, Ranking Minority Member; Tate, Assistant Ranking Minority Member; Anderson; Beck; Brekke; Hargrove; Hochstatter; R. King; and H. Myers.

Staff: David Knutson (786-7146).

Background: The number of senior citizens is expected to grow dramatically over the next 20 years. Seniors who have spent a lifetime acquiring professional, occupational, and life skills, are a valuable resource for society. Current state programs for senior volunteers do not have a statutory framework for distributing funds to retired senior volunteer programs.

Summary of Bill: The Department of Community Development will distribute appropriated funds to retired senior volunteer programs according to the following formula: 65 percent according to criteria determined by the department, up to 20 percent by competitive grant to establish new or expand existing programs, 10 percent for administration, and up to 5 percent for state-wide projects. Priorities for funds include; education, tutoring, English as a second language, drug abuse prevention, housing and homelessness, and respite care.

Fiscal Note: Not requested.

Effective Date: The bill contains an emergency clause and takes effect immediately.

Testimony For: Retired senior volunteers provide many valuable services to their communities. Retired senior volunteer programs should be increased and expanded. The Department of Community Development should follow a funding formula when distributing funds to retired senior volunteer programs.

Testimony Against: None.

Witnesses: Arnold Livingston, Senior Citizens Lobby; Bob Williamson, Washington Association of Retired Senior Volunteer (RSVP) Directors; Pat Johnson, Grays Harbor RSVP Director; and Anne Yearsley, RSVP Volunteer.
