Background: The Veterans Affairs Advisory Committee serves in an advisory capacity to the governor and to the director of the Department of Veterans Affairs on matters pertaining to the department. Members are appointed to the committee by the governor. Currently there are 15 members on the advisory committee, with the composition as follows: two veterans at large, one of whom is a Vietnam veteran; one representative from the Soldiers' Home and Colony at Orting; one representative from the Veterans' Home at Retsil; and one representative from each of 11 specified veterans organizations.

Summary of Bill: The Veterans Affairs Advisory Committee is expanded from 15 to 17 members. There continues to be representation from the Soldiers' Home at Orting and the Veterans' Home at Retsil. There are to be two veterans at large on the advisory committee. The remaining 13 members are to represent congressionally-chartered veterans organizations. However, rather than specifying the particular organizations to be represented on the advisory committee, the composition of this portion of the committee is to be determined as follows: there is to be one representative from each of the three veterans organizations with the largest number of active members in the state; the remaining 10 members will be chosen to represent organizations having at least one active chapter in the state. No organization is to have more than one official representative on the advisory committee at any one time.

The bill provides a mechanism for veterans organizations to nominate individuals for appointment consideration. In making appointments to the advisory committee, the governor is to consider the recommendations of the veterans organizations. The governor is also to consider representation on the committee of various parts of the state and of the viewpoints of minority and women veterans.

Fiscal Note: Not requested.

Effective Date: Ninety days after adjournment of session in which bill is passed.

Testimony For: A number of veterans organizations will now be free to submit nominations for representation on the advisory committee. This change will help to ensure an active and interested membership on the committee. This change is a good and timely idea. It puts all the small veterans organizations on the same footing.

Testimony Against: None.

Witnesses: Ron Hoffman, Department of Veterans Affairs; and Keith Sherman, Veterans Legislative Coalition (both in favor).
