

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 91-4645, by Representatives Jacobsen and Cole

WHEREAS, The State of Washington understands the importance of teamwork in public schools; and

WHEREAS, The quality of work done by paraprofessional staff is an integral part of that teamwork; and

WHEREAS, Paraprofessional staff provide invaluable service to students and to certificated staff, through direct instruction, testing, recordkeeping, and preparation of materials; and

WHEREAS, Educational paraprofessionals are very deserving of public recognition similar to that accorded other public school employees;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives hereby declare March 13, 1991, as Paraprofessional Day, and officially recognize and congratulate all those public school paraprofessionals who dedicate so much of their time and energy for the betterment of our public schools and our children; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be immediately transmitted by the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives to all of Washington's school districts so that their paraprofessionals may be made aware of it.

I hereby certify this to be a true and correct copy of Resolution 4645 adopted by the Rules Committee of the House of Representatives March 22, 1991.
