

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 92-4777, by Representatives Hine and Prince

WHEREAS, The regular session of the 1992 Legislature is drawing to a close; and

WHEREAS, It is particularly challenging to complete our work in a short 60 day session; and

WHEREAS, Our legislative staff is essential to the accomplishment of that task; and

WHEREAS, Our professional nonpartisan staff has once again provided excellent research and assistance, working long hours perfecting our creative ideas into workable proposals; and

WHEREAS, Our own personal staff manage to keep track of our mail, our phone calls, our visitors, our constituents, and sometimes even us; and

WHEREAS, Our Chief Clerk and rostrum workers keep papers moving in a mysterious way that somehow results in good laws for the people of the State of Washington; and

WHEREAS, Our workroom and bill room staff work tirelessly behind the scenes at all hours to feed our insatiable appetite for bill reports, bill books, amendments, resolutions, and other both digestible and indigestible paper products; and

WHEREAS, The tour guides proudly show many thousands of visitors our beautiful capitol building; and

WHEREAS, Our respective caucus staffs carry out their work with enthusiasm and eagerness; and

WHEREAS, The session workers have assisted in all their many tasks; and

WHEREAS, The tremendous support from all our staff contributed significantly to our ability to perform our duties as state legislators;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the members of the House of Representatives express our sincere thanks to all those who have given so much of their personal time and considerable skills to help us complete a successful session; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be distributed to all staff offices and work areas as a sign of our sincere appreciation.
