1 AN ACT Relating to the Washington rural development council; adding 2 new sections to chapter 43.31 RCW; and adding new sections to chapter
3 43.131 RCW.

4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

5 NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. During the decade of the 1980's and into 6 the early 1990's, much of rural Washington has experienced economic 7 distress and population decline as compared to the rapidly growing 8 Puget Sound region. The reasons for the dramatic disparity between the 9 two regions of the state are complex and varied. However, the 10 challenges facing resource-based industries as compared to the dramatic 11 growth opportunities in aerospace and technology-based products have 12 been one of the major contributors to this phenomenon.

13 During this period of rural recession, a series of state programs 14 were established and expanded to address the problems facing rural

1 communities with the primary focus being placed on distressed areas.
2 In recent years, concerns have been raised regarding the level of 3 coordination and cooperation between the various programs along with an 4 increasing emphasis on the need to ensure accountability and greater
5 program effectiveness. The legislatively mandated service delivery 6 task force, in its report to the legislature, confirmed the need for 7 policy and programmatic change with particular emphasis on the 8 following areas: Clear articulation of a comprehensive policy 9 direction; renewed emphasis on the specific needs of clients; need for 10 planning and delivery of services at the local level; leveraging of 11 resources through collaboration and building of trust among 12 participants; evaluation of programs; and concrete implementation of 13 the task force plans and recommendations.

14 The federal government, by presidential initiative, established the 15 rural development council which is comprised of representatives from 16 the federal, state, local, and tribal governments along with private 17 and nonprofit sectors in an effort to promote coordination and 18 cooperation in promoting economic vitality in the rural areas. This 19 initiative provides a unique opportunity for state government to 20 support the work of the council while building on the recommendations
21 of previous legislatures and the findings of the service delivery task
22 force. It is the intent of the legislature to ensure a healthy future
23 for rural communities and their citizens while building a partnership 24 based on trust and mutual benefit between the urban and rural 25 communities of Washington.

26 NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The Washington rural development council
27 is established. The council's mission is to coordinate and apply 28 private, local, state, tribal, and federal resources to support the

1 development of viable, self-reliant rural communities according to 2 locally conceived and driven strategies.

3 NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The Washington rural development council
4 shall be comprised of six executive officers, whose initial 5 appointments may be staggered, appointed by the governor for four-year
6 terms. The council shall elect a chairperson from among its own
7 members who shall serve for a period of one year. The chairmanship of 8 the council shall rotate annually between federal and state
9 representatives. The executive officers shall provide policy direction 10 and administrative oversight to the council.

11 NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The Washington rural development
12 council's executive committee shall be comprised of thirty members
13 including the six executive officers. The additional twenty-four 14 members shall be appointed by the executive officers. The individuals
15 shall represent the following areas: Federal government, state 16 government, local government, tribal government, and private and 17 nonprofit sectors. The executive committee members shall be appointed 18 for two years and members may be appointed to staggered terms in 19 initial appointments. The executive committee shall provide long-term 20 policy direction and oversight to the council.

21 NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. General membership in the Washington
22 rural development council is open to all individuals and organizations 23 with an interest in rural economic development and wishing to assist 24 the council in its stated goals and objectives.

25 NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The Washington rural development
26 council's executive director shall be appointed by the council's

1 executive officers and serve at their pleasure. The executive director 2 shall provide staff support and assist the council in designing and 3 implementing state goals and strategies.

4 NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The duties of the council include:
