

6275

Sponsor(s): Senators von Reichbauer, Williams and Pelz; by request of Attorney General

Brief Description: Regulating credit information use.

SB 6275 - DIGEST

Establishes the circumstances when a consumer reporting agency may appropriately furnish a consumer report.

Establishes the circumstances when a consumer report may be used in employment and credit determination situations.

Provides disclosure requirements on consumer reporting agencies upon receipt of a request from the consumer.

Designates procedures for correction of information contained in consumer reports.

Establishes penalties for violations of the act.