Brief Description: Amending the Constitution so that state officials' salaries are not set by an independent commission, but are established as they were prior to the commission's establishment.

SJR 8229 - DIGEST

Proposes an amendment to Article XXVII of the state Constitution to delete the authority of an independent commission to establish the salaries of state officials.

Provides that the state legislature shall establish the salaries.

Provides that the compensation of any state officer shall not be increased during the term of office.

Repeals selections 14, 16, 17, 19, 20, 21, and 22 of Article III and section 23 of Article II.
