5 (h) A person who, upon entering school premises, immediately
6 places the firearm or other dangerous weapon in a locked box
7 provided for weapon storage, or who checks the firearm or other
8 dangerous weapon with a school official designated to receive 9 weapons for safekeeping during the owner's visit to the school.
10 Each school shall provide a locked box and key to a weapon owner
11 for weapon storage, or shall designate a school official to receive 12 weapons for safekeeping, during the owner's visit to school
13 premises. A locked box shall be located in the school office or in 14 the reception area. A school official designated to receive 15 weapons shall be located within school premises. The school shall 16 be liable for damage to or loss of a weapon either placed in a 17 locked box or left with a designated school official during the 18 owner's visit to school premises"

EFFECT: Requires a school either to provide a locked box and key, or to designate a school official to receive weapons, for weapon storage during the owner's visit to school premises. A locked box must be located in the school office or in the reception area. A designated school official must be located within school premises. The school bears the risk of loss of or damage to a weapon.
