2 By Representative Dyer

3 On page 2, line 7, after "years." insert "(3) When an 4 employer provides food below market price to employees, the 5 difference between market price and the amount charged to employees 6 who consume the food shall be considered wages for the purpose of 7 this section."

EFFECT: The amendment provides that the subsidized value of food which is consumed by an employee shall be considered a part of the employees wage.
