24 "(3) In determining under this section whether an individual has 25 left work voluntarily without good cause, the commissioner shall only 26 consider work-connected factors such as the degree of risk involved to 27 the individual's health, safety, and morals, the individual's physical 28 fitness for the work, the individual's ability to perform the work, and

1 such other work connected factors as the commissioner may deem 2 pertinent, including state and national emergencies. Good cause shall 3 not be established for voluntarily leaving work because of its distance 4 from an individual's residence where the distance was known to the 5 individual at the time he or she accepted the employment and where, in 6 the judgment of the department, the distance is customarily traveled by 7 workers in the individual's job classification and labor market, nor 8 because of any other significant work factor which was generally known 9 and present at the time he or she accepted employment, unless the 10 related circumstances have so changed as to amount to a substantial 11 involuntary deterioration of the work factor or unless the commissioner 12 determines that other related circumstances would work an unreasonable 13 hardship on the individual were he or she required to continue in the 14 employment."
