HOUSE COMMITTEE ON STATE GOVERNMENT

Majority Report: The substitute bill be substituted therefor and the substitute bill do pass. Signed by 9 members: Representatives Anderson, Chair; Veloria, Vice Chair; Reams, Ranking Minority Member; Vance, Assistant Ranking Minority Member; Campbell; Conway; Dyer; King; and Pruitt.

Staff: Kenneth Hirst (786-7105).

Background: The design of the state flag is set by statute. It must be prominently displayed, with the flag of the United States, in schools, court rooms, and state buildings.

The secretary of state is authorized to provide the flag, without charge, to units of the armed forces and may sell the flag to any citizen at a price set by the secretary.

Summary of Bill: The secretary of state may, without charge, provide the state flag: in memory of a state employee killed in the performance of his or her state duties; in memory of a current or former elected or appointed state official upon his or her death; or to a citizen who has performed outstanding service for the benefit of the state.

The secretary may also present the state flag or similar memento to a visiting state, national, or international guest. These mementos are to be given without expense to the state. The secretary of state may secure private donations for this purpose and must deposit such funds in a bank account established for this purpose. These funds are not public monies.

Fiscal Note: Requested February 24, 1993.

Effective Date: Ninety days after adjournment of session in which bill is passed.

Testimony For: This bill is necessary to continue a recently established tradition of providing state flags to the families of state workers who have died in the line of duty, and to the families of deceased state officials.

Testimony Against: None.

Witnesses: Ralph Munro, Secretary of State (in favor).
