

HOUSE BILL REPORT

HB 2487

As Reported By House Committee On:
Judiciary

Title: An act relating to employers in the standard industrial classification.

Brief Description: Revising provisions relating to employer reporting to the Washington state support registry.

Sponsors: Representatives Appelwick, Forner and Karahalios; by request of Department of Social and Health Services.

Brief History:

Reported by House Committee on:
Judiciary, February 1, 1994, DP.

HOUSE COMMITTEE ON JUDICIARY

Majority Report: Do pass. Signed by 15 members: Representatives Appelwick, Chair; Johanson, Vice Chair; Padden, Ranking Minority Member; Ballasiotes, Assistant Ranking Minority Member; Campbell; Chappell; Eide; Forner; J. Kohl; Long; Morris; H. Myers; Schmidt; Scott and Tate.

Staff: Pat Shelledy (786-7149).

Background: The office of support enforcement, part of the Department of Social and Health Services, has established an employer reporting program to assist the office in collecting child support. Under the program, certain employers are required to report to the Washington State Support Registry when the employer hires a person or rehires a person previously laid off or fired. Employers required to participate in the program include employers in the standard industrial classifications as follows:

- (a) construction industry sic codes: 15, building; 16, other than building;
- (b) manufacturing industry sic code 37, transportation equipment;
- (c) wholesale trade industry sic codes: 73, business services, except sic code 7362 (temporary help supply services); and 80, health services.

Summary of Bill: The construction industry special trades sic code number 17 is added to the employer reporting program. Technical changes are also made.

Fiscal Note: Requested January 24, 1994.

Effective Date: Ninety days after adjournment of session in which bill is passed.

Testimony For: The bill adopts in part a recommendation by the Legislative Budget Committee to expand the employer reporting program.

Testimony Against: None.

Witnesses: Mike Ricchio, Department of Social and Health Services (pro).