Background: A provision of the state's public disclosure law that pre-dates Initiative 134 restricts the size of the contributions that may be made within 21 days of a general election. No person, other than a state major political party, may make a contribution or group of contributions during this period which total more than $50,000 to a campaign for statewide office or more than $5,000 for any other campaign.

Among its other provisions, Initiative 134 limits the size of the contributions that may be made during a two or four year election cycle to candidates for state executive and state legislative offices.

Summary of Bill: The provisions of the disclosure law that limit the size of the contributions which may be made within 21 days of a general election now apply to primaries and special elections as well.

Fiscal Note: Requested January 25, 1994.

Effective Date: Ninety days after adjournment of session in which bill is passed.

Testimony For: The bill applies the current limit for contributions given in the 21 days before a general election to other elections as well.
