

HOUSE BILL REPORT

SB 6408

As Passed House - Amended
March 3, 1994

Title: An act relating to including tribal authorities in mental health systems.

Brief Description: Including tribal authorities in mental health systems.

Sponsors: Senators Spanel, Owen, Prentice, Sheldon, Fraser and Hargrove.

Brief History:

Reported by House Committee on:
Human Services, February 23, 1994, DPA.
Passed House - Amended, March 3, 1994, 95-0

HOUSE COMMITTEE ON HUMAN SERVICES

Majority Report: Do pass as amended. Signed by 11 members: Representatives Leonard, Chair; Thibaudeau, Vice Chair; Cooke, Ranking Minority Member; Talcott, Assistant Ranking Minority Member; Brown; Caver; Karahalios; Lisk; Padden; Patterson and Wolfe.

Staff: Dave Knutson (786-7146).

Background: Under current law, a county or a group of counties whose population is greater than 40,000 persons may enter a joint operating agreement to form a regional support network to plan, organize and deliver mental health services according to a contract with the state Department of Social and Health Services.

Under current law, no statutory requirement exists for a tribal authority to be party to such a joint operating agreement.

Summary of Bill: The term "tribal authority" is defined as a federally recognized Native American tribe or a major Native American organization recognized by the secretary of the Department of Social and Health Services.

Upon their request, a tribal authority must be included as a party to a joint operating agreement to establish a regional support network. The joint operating agreement must include a determination of tribal authority membership on the governing board and advisory boards and must include provision for culturally competent services to the tribes served.

Fiscal Note: Available.

Effective Date: Ninety days after adjournment of session in which bill is passed.

Testimony For: Tribal authorities should be allowed to participate in mental health planning and service delivery.

Testimony Against: None.

Witnesses: Randy Scott, Quinault, Colville and Lummi Tribes (pro); David Hanig, Department of Social and Health Services (pro); and Gabriel Landry, Department of Social and Health Services (pro).
