Background: A person can commit the crime of criminal impersonation in either of two ways. First, the crime may be committed by assuming a false identity and acting with an unlawful purpose. Second, the crime may be committed by pretending to be a representative of another person and acting with an unlawful purpose. The crime is a gross misdemeanor.

Summary of Bill: The crime of criminal impersonation is amended to include two degrees. The existing crime is designated first-degree criminal impersonation.

The new crime of second-degree criminal impersonation is created. The crime is committed by claiming to be, or creating the impression that one is, a law enforcement officer and, under circumstances not amounting to the first-degree crime, acting with the intent to convey the impression that one is acting in an official capacity. The impression created must be one that would cause a reasonable person to believe that the defendant was a law enforcement officer.

The second-degree crime is a misdemeanor.
