BACKGROUND:

The governing boards of the state's public higher education institutions may exempt veterans of the Vietnam conflict who served in Southeast Asia from the payment of any increase in student tuition and fees. The veteran shall not be required to pay more than the total amount of tuition and fees paid by veterans of the Vietnam conflict on October 1, 1977. To qualify for the exemption, the veteran must have been on active service between August 5, 1964 and May 7, 1975. Additionally, the veteran must be a resident of Washington and must have enrolled in a state higher education institution on or before May 7, 1990. This exemption expires June 30, 1995.

Students who were enrolled in Washington State institutions of higher education on or after August 2, 1990, and whose academic work was interrupted by deployment in the Persian Gulf combat zone, are entitled to either a refund of tuition and fees for that academic term or shall be readmitted for one academic term without being subject to additional tuition or fees. The refund and reenrollment benefits for Persian Gulf War veterans expires on June 30, 1995.

SUMMARY:

The tuition and fees exemption for Vietnam veterans and the refund and reenrollment benefits for Persian Gulf veterans are extended to June 30, 1997.

EFFECT OF PROPOSED SUBSTITUTE:

An additional tuition exemption exists which exempts Persian War veterans from tuition increases after August 1, 1990, if the veteran could have qualified as a Washington resident on August 1, 1990 and if the veteran can demonstrate financial need. The proposed substitute extends the sunset date for this exemption from June 30, 1994 to June 30, 1997.

All of the exemptions listed in the bill are limited to veterans who attended a state institution of higher education at any time after January 1, 1993, and before February 1, 1994.
