HOUSE BILL 2267

State of Washington

53rd Legislature

1994 Regular Session

By Representatives Campbell, Chandler, Springer, Conway, Veloria, Lisk and Wineberry

Read first time 01/12/94. Referred to Committee on Commerce & Labor.

1 AN ACT Relating to security guard licensing; and amending RCW
2 18.170.100.

3 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

4 Sec. 1. RCW 18.170.100 and 1991 c 334 s 10 are each amended to 5 read as follows:

6 (1) The director shall adopt rules establishing preassignment 7 training and testing requirements, which shall include a minimum of 8 four hours of classes. The director may establish, by rule, continuing 9 education requirements for private security guards. Rules adopted 10 under this subsection may not require persons testing, training, or 11 certifying security guards to own private security companies or to be 12 employed as licensed security guards.

13 (2) The director shall consult with the private security industry
14 and law enforcement before adopting or amending the preassignment
15 training or continuing education requirements of this section.

16 (3) A private security guard or armed private security guard need 17 not fulfill the preassignment training requirements of this chapter if 18 he or she, within sixty days of July 28, 1991, provides proof to the 19 director that he or she previously has met the training requirements of

1 this chapter or has been employed as a private security guard or armed 2 private security guard for at least eighteen consecutive months
3 immediately prior to the date of application.
