

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 93-4634, by Representatives Dorn and Miller

WHEREAS, It is important to recognize the special abilities of all students; and

WHEREAS, Through the arts, students develop imagination, initiative, creativity, self-expression, self confidence, and aesthetic sensitivity; and

WHEREAS, The arts are an essential part of the human experience, providing communication across culture and providing an historical record; and

WHEREAS, Because of the arts, many students who may otherwise lose interest in school become invigorated in learning because of the opportunity to pursue the arts; and

WHEREAS, The 20th Annual High School Art Show is being conducted by the Superintendent of Public Instruction on Thursday, March 25, 1993, recognizing the talents of our students, supporting arts education in our schools and communities, and marking the beginning of "A Year Dedicated to Arts Education, 1993-94";

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives recognize the contribution of the arts to education and honor the winners of the 20th Annual High School Arts Show and their teachers; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be immediately transmitted by the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives to Superintendent of Public Instruction Judith Billings and through her to the state winners of the 20th Annual High School Art Show.

I hereby certify this to be a true and correct copy of Resolution 4634 adopted by the House of Representatives
March 26, 1993.

Alan Thompson, Chief Clerk
