Governor of the State of Washington

Secretary of State
State of Washington

1 States and provinces recognize that there are many public policy
2 areas in which cooperation and joint efforts would be mutually 3 beneficial. These areas include, but are not limited to:
4 International trade; economic development; human resources; the 5 environment and natural resources; energy; and education. Parties to 6 this agreement shall work diligently to establish collaborative 7 activity in these and other appropriate policy areas where such 8 cooperation is deemed worthwhile and of benefit to the participating 9 entities. Participating states and provinces also agree that there are 10 areas in which cooperation may not be feasible.

11 The substantive actions of the Pacific Northwest Economic Region
12 may take the form of uniform legislation enacted by two or more states 13 and/or provinces or policy initiatives endorsed as appropriate by 14 participating entities. It shall not be necessary for all states and 15 provinces to participate in each initiative.

16 ARTICLE II--Eligible Parties and Effective Date

17 Each of the following states and provinces is eligible to become a
18 party to this agreement: Alaska, Alberta, British Columbia, Idaho, 19 Montana, Oregon, and Washington. This agreement establishing the 20 Pacific Northwest Economic Region shall become effective when it is 21 executed by one state, one province, and one additional state and/or 22 province in a form deemed appropriate by each entity. This agreement
23 shall continue in force and remain binding upon each state and province 24 until renounced by it. Renunciation of this agreement must be preceded 25 by sending one year's notice in writing of intention to withdraw from 26 the agreement to the other parties to the agreement.

27 ARTICLE III--Organizational Structure

28 Each state and province participating in this agreement shall 29 appoint representatives to the Pacific Northwest Economic Region. The 30 organizational structure of the Pacific Northwest Economic Region shall 31 consist of the following: A delegate council consisting of four 32 legislators and the governor or governor's designee from each 33 participating state and four representatives and the premier or the 34 premier's designee from each participating province and an executive 35 committee consisting of one legislator from each participating state 36 and/or province who is a member of the delegate council and four of the 37 seven governors/premiers or their designees who are members of the

1 delegate council. The legislator members of the executive committee
2 from each state or province shall be chosen by the legislator members
3 of that state or province. The four governor or premier members of the 4 executive committee shall be chosen by the governors and premiers from 5 among the governors and premiers on the delegate council. At least one 6 of four members representing the governors and premiers on the 7 executive committee must be the premier of a Canadian province. Policy 8 committees may be established to carry out further duties and 9 responsibilities of the Pacific Northwest Economic Region.

10 ARTICLE IV--Duties and Responsibilities

11 The delegate council shall have the following duties and 12 responsibilities: Facilitate the involvement of other government 13 officials in the development and implementation of specific 14 collaborative initiatives; work with policy-making committees in the 15 development and implementation of specific initiatives; approve general 16 organizational policies developed by the executive committee; provide 17 final approval of the annual budget and staffing structure for the 18 Pacific Northwest Economic Region developed by the executive committee; 19 and other duties and responsibilities as may be established in the 20 rules and regulations of the Pacific Northwest Economic Region. The 21 executive committee shall perform the following duties and 22 responsibilities: Elect the president and vice-president of the 23 Pacific Northwest Economic Region; approve and implement general 24 organizational policies; develop the annual budget; devise the annual 25 action plan; act as liaison with other public and private sector
26 entities; review the availability of, and if appropriate apply for, (1)
27 tax exempt status under the laws and regulations of the United States 28 or any state or subdivision thereof and (2) similar status under the 29 laws and regulations of Canada or any province or subdivision thereof, 30 and approve such rules, regulations, organizational policies, and 31 staffing structure for the Pacific Northwest Economic Region and take 32 such further actions on behalf of the Pacific Northwest Economic Region 33 as may be deemed by the executive committee to be necessary or 34 appropriate to qualify for and maintain such tax exempt or similar 35 status under the applicable laws or regulations; and other duties and 36 responsibilities established in the rules and regulations of the 37 Pacific Northwest Economic Region. The rules and regulations of the

1 Pacific Northwest Economic Region shall establish the procedure for 2 voting.

3 ARTICLE V--Membership of Policy Committees

4 Policy committees dealing with specific subject matter may be 5 established by the executive committee.

6 Each participating state and province shall appoint legislators and 7 governors or premiers to sit on these committees in accordance with its 8 own rules and regulations concerning such appointments.

9 ARTICLE VI--General Provisions

10 This agreement shall not be construed to limit the powers of any 11 state or province or to amend or repeal or prevent the enactment of any 12 legislation.
