

1182-S

Sponsor(s): House Committee on Education (originally sponsored by Representatives Brumsickle, Karahalios, Dorn, Chandler, Peery, G. Cole, Zellinsky, Chappell, Jacobsen, Basich, Carlson, Wood, B. Thomas, Brough, Cothorn, Van Luven, Johanson, Shin, Jones, Morton, Ballard, Padden, Fuhrman, Sheahan, Talcott, Schoesler, Long, Eide, Flemming, Wang, Horn, Mielke, Tate, Springer, Cooke, Dyer, Leonard, Foreman, Vance, Pruitt and Finkbeiner)

Brief Description: Allowing retired teachers to work in educational institutions for ninety days per school year without a reduction in benefits.

HB 1182-S.E - DIGEST

(DIGEST AS ENACTED)

Increases the permissible number of days from seventy-five to ninety days per school year.

Authorizes the additional days to be used only for substitute teaching in areas where a shortage of substitutes exist.

Applies to benefits payable after September 1, 1994.