

1965

Sponsor(s): Representatives Anderson and Johanson

Brief Description: Reimbursing public agencies for providing geographic information services.

HB 1965 - DIGEST

Establishes user fees for geographic information system services and products that are calculated to recover a reasonable portion of the costs associated with developing and maintaining a geographic information system.

Authorizes agencies to require a hold harmless agreement from a recipient of its geographic information.

Allows an agency to decline to reformat its geographic information system.