5 Beginning on page 1, line 19, after "obligation." strike all 6 material through "overpayment." on page 2, line 4, and insert "If an 7 obligor pays for day care or special child rearing expenses that are 8 not actually incurred, the obligee must reimburse the obligor for the 9 overpayment. The reimbursement may be in the form of a credit against 10 future support payments upon agreement of both parties or pursuant to 11 a court or administrative order. Absent agreement of the obligee, 12 nothing in this section entitles an obligor to pay more than his or her 13 proportionate share of day care or other special child rearing expenses
14 in advance and then deduct the overpayment from future support transfer 15 payments."
