EFFECT: The Joint Center for Higher Education (JCHE) continues to operate in Spokane and its powers and duties remain unchanged. Title to land and buildings at Riverpoint, except for land and buildings for the Spokane Intercollegiate Research and Technology Institute, is retained by the JCHE. Washington State University and Eastern Washington University continue to be responsible for providing upper-division and graduate level programs in Spokane under rules adopted by the JCHE. Intent language is added that requires assessments and studies to be completed and provided to the legislature for consideration.
