HOUSE COMMITTEE ON LAW & JUSTICE

Majority Report: Do pass. Signed by 12 members: Representatives Sheahan, Chairman; McDonald, Vice Chairman; Sterk, Vice Chairman; Constantine, Assistant Ranking Minority Member; Carrell; Cody; Kenney; Lambert; Lantz; Radcliff; Sherstad and Skinner.

Minority Report: Do not pass. Signed by 1 member: Representative Costa, Ranking Minority Member.

Staff: Edie Adams (786-7180).

Background: A person who is sued in a civil action may bring a claim or counterclaim against the suing party for malicious prosecution if the action was instituted with knowledge that it was false, unfounded, malicious, and without probable cause, or that the action was filed with knowledge that it was false, unfounded, and a part of a conspiracy to misuse the judicial process.

If a judicial officer, prosecuting attorney, or law enforcement officer prevails on a claim of malicious prosecution that arises out of that person's performance of his or her public duty, the officer or prosecuting attorney may be allowed an additional $1,000 as liquidated damages, reasonable attorneys' fees, and other costs of the suit. "Law enforcement officer" is defined as a member of the state patrol, a sheriff or deputy sheriff, or a member of the police force of a city, town, university, or state college, or a wildlife agent or ex officio wildlife agent.

Port districts are local governments authorized to administer the harbors, rail, air transfer and terminal facilities, and industrial and commercial developments of the county. Port districts are authorized to appoint police officers with full police powers to enforce all federal, state, and local laws or ordinances on port-owned property.

Summary of Bill: The definition of "law enforcement officer" for the purposes of the malicious prosecution statute is amended to include a member of the police force of a port district.
