Each medal is bronze, suspended from a ring attached by a dark green ribbon, includes the seal of the state surrounded by a raised laurel wreath with the following inscribed words: "For the greatest act of kindness in donating organs to enhance the lives of others."

An organ procurement organization must determine that the person for whom a medal is sought has made the donation and submits documentation to the Office of the Governor. If more than one organ procurement organization is involved, the organizations shall coordinate in harmony to designate by consensus the organization with primary administrative responsibility.

Only one medal is awarded for an eligible person, but duplicate medals may be purchased by the family or person eligible to receive the medal at a price sufficient to cover the cost.
