SENATE COMMITTEE ON FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS, INSURANCE & HOUSING

Background: Mobile home parks provide space for mobile homeowners to place their homes. The relationship between park owners and homeowners is governed by the Mobile Home Landlord-Tenant Act.

Park owners' duties under the act are enforced by arbitration, private litigation and, to some extent, by local health departments.

Summary of Bill: Park owners are required to register with the Department of Community, Trade, and Economic Development in order to do business as a mobile home park.

The department is given authority to issue cease and desist orders for failure to register, and to file lawsuits to enforce the registration requirement. Residents or tenants in mobile home parks may initiate an action to enforce the act.

The prevailing party in any lawsuit to enforce the act is entitled to attorney's fees.

Appropriation: None.

Fiscal Note: Requested on January 16, 1998.

Effective Date: Ninety days after adjournment of session in which bill is passed.
