- 7 (12) If a sentence imposed includes payment of a legal financial 8 obligation, the sentence shall specify the total amount of the legal 9 financial obligation owed, and shall require the offender to pay a 10 specified monthly sum toward that legal financial obligation. Restitution to victims shall be paid prior to any other payments of 11 monetary obligations. - 8 (a) The instructions shall include, at a minimum, reporting as 9 directed to a community corrections officer, remaining within 10 prescribed geographical boundaries, notifying the community corrections 11 officer of any change in the offender's address or employment, and 12 paying the supervision fee assessment.
- (b) For sex offenders sentenced to terms involving community 13 14 custody for crimes committed on or after June 6, 1996, the department 15 may include, in addition to the instructions in (a) of this subsection, any appropriate conditions of supervision, including but not limited 16 17 to, prohibiting the offender from having contact with any other specified individuals or specific class of individuals. The conditions 18 19 authorized under this subsection (14)(b) may be imposed by the department prior to or during a sex offender's community custody term. 20 If a violation of conditions imposed by the court or the department 21 pursuant to subsection (10) of this section occurs during community 22 custody, it shall be deemed a violation of community placement for the 23 24 purposes of RCW 9.94A.207 and shall authorize the department to 25 transfer an offender to a more restrictive confinement status as 26 provided in RCW 9.94A.205. At any time prior to the completion of a 27 sex offender's term of community custody, the department may recommend to the court that any or all of the conditions imposed by the court or 28 29 the department pursuant to subsection (10) of this section be continued 30 beyond the expiration of the offender's term of community custody as 31 authorized in subsection (10)(c) of this section.
 - The department may require offenders to pay for special services rendered on or after July 25, 1993, including electronic monitoring, day reporting, and telephone reporting, dependent upon the offender's ability to pay. The department may pay for these services for offenders who are not able to pay.
- 37 (15) All offenders sentenced to terms involving community 38 supervision, community service, or community placement under the 39 supervision of the department of corrections shall not own, use, or

- 8 (16) The sentencing court shall give the offender credit for all

- 12 (17) A departure from the standards in RCW 9.94A.400 (1) and (2)

Sec. 3. RCW 9.94A.140 and 1995 c 231 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

3 (1) If restitution is ordered, the court shall determine the amount 4 of restitution due at the sentencing hearing or within one hundred 5 eighty days. The court may continue the hearing beyond the one hundred eighty days for good cause. The court shall then set a minimum monthly 6 7 payment that the offender is required to make towards the restitution 8 that is ordered. The court should take into consideration the total 9 amount of the restitution owed, the offender's present, past, and 10 future ability to pay, as well as any assets that the offender may During the period of supervision, the community corrections 11 officer may examine the offender to determine if there has been a 12 change in circumstances that warrants an amendment of the monthly 13 payment schedule. The community corrections officer may recommend a 14 15 change to the schedule of payment and shall inform the court of the 16 recommended change and the reasons for the change. The sentencing 17 court may then reset the monthly minimum payments based on the report from the community corrections officer of the change in circumstances. 18 19 Restitution ordered by a court pursuant to a criminal conviction shall 20 be based on easily ascertainable damages for injury to or loss of property, actual expenses incurred for treatment for injury to persons, 21 and lost wages resulting from injury. Restitution shall not include 22 reimbursement for damages for mental anguish, pain and suffering, or 23 24 other intangible losses, but may include the costs of counseling 25 reasonably related to the offense. The amount of restitution shall not exceed double the amount of the offender's gain or the victim's loss 26 from the commission of the crime. For the purposes of this section, 27 the offender shall remain under the court's jurisdiction for a 28 29 ((maximum)) term of ten years following the offender's release from 30 total confinement or ten years subsequent to the entry of the judgment 31 and sentence, whichever period is longer. Prior to the expiration of the initial ten-year period, the superior court may extend jurisdiction 32 under the criminal judgment an additional ten years for payment of 33 34 restitution. If jurisdiction under the criminal judgment is extended, 35 the department is not responsible for supervision of the offender during the subsequent period. The portion of the sentence concerning 36 37 restitution may be modified as to amount, terms and conditions during 38 either the initial ten-year period or subsequent ten-year period if the 39 criminal judgment is extended, regardless of the expiration of the

- offender's term of community supervision and regardless of the statutory maximum for the crime. The court may not reduce the total amount of restitution ordered because the offender may lack the ability to pay the total amount. The offender's compliance with the restitution shall be supervised by the department.
- 6 (2) Restitution may be ordered whenever the offender is convicted 7 of an offense which results in injury to any person or damage to or 8 loss of property. In addition, restitution may be ordered to pay for 9 an injury, loss, or damage if the offender pleads guilty to a lesser 10 offense or fewer offenses and agrees with the prosecutor's recommendation that the offender be required to pay restitution to a 11 12 victim of an offense or offenses which are not prosecuted pursuant to 13 a plea agreement.
- 14 (3) In addition to any sentence that may be imposed, a defendant 15 who has been found guilty of an offense involving fraud or other 16 deceptive practice or an organization which has been found guilty of 17 any such offense may be ordered by the sentencing court to give notice of the conviction to the class of persons or to the sector of the 18 19 public affected by the conviction or financially interested in the 20 subject matter of the offense by mail, by advertising in designated areas or through designated media, or by other appropriate means. 21

(2) Restitution shall be ordered whenever the offender is convicted of an offense which results in injury to any person or damage to or loss of property unless extraordinary circumstances exist which make restitution inappropriate in the court's judgment and the court sets forth such circumstances in the record. In addition, restitution shall be ordered to pay for an injury, loss, or damage if the offender pleads guilty to a lesser offense or fewer offenses and agrees with the prosecutor's recommendation that the offender be required to pay restitution to a victim of an offense or offenses which are not prosecuted pursuant to a plea agreement.

- (3) Regardless of the provisions of subsections (1) and (2) of this section, the court shall order restitution in all cases where the victim is entitled to benefits under the crime victims' compensation act, chapter 7.68 RCW. If the court does not order restitution and the victim of the crime has been determined to be entitled to benefits under the crime victims' compensation act, the department of labor and industries, as administrator of the crime victims' compensation program, may petition the court within one year of entry of the judgment and sentence for entry of a restitution order. Upon receipt of a petition from the department of labor and industries, the court shall hold a restitution hearing and shall enter a restitution order.

- 3 Sec. 5. RCW 9.94A.145 and 1995 c 231 s 3 are each amended to read 4 as follows:
- (1) Whenever a person is convicted of a felony, the court may order 5 the payment of a legal financial obligation as part of the sentence. 6 7 The court must on either the judgment and sentence or on a subsequent order to pay, designate the total amount of a legal financial 8 9 obligation and segregate this amount among the separate assessments 10 made for restitution, costs, fines, and other assessments required by On the same order, the court is also to set a sum that the 11 12 offender is required to pay on a monthly basis towards satisfying the legal financial obligation. If the court fails to set the offender 13 14 monthly payment amount, the department shall set the amount. 15 receipt of an offender's monthly payment, after restitution is satisfied, the county clerk shall distribute the payment proportionally 16 17 among all other fines, costs, and assessments imposed, unless otherwise 18 ordered by the court.
 - (2) If the court determines that the offender, at the time of sentencing, has the means to pay for the cost of incarceration, the court may require the offender to pay for the cost of incarceration at a rate of fifty dollars per day of incarceration. Payment of other court-ordered financial obligations, including all legal financial obligations and costs of supervision shall take precedence over the payment of the cost of incarceration ordered by the court. All funds recovered from offenders for the cost of incarceration in the county jail shall be remitted to the county and the costs of incarceration in a prison shall be remitted to the department of corrections.
- 29 (3) The court may add to the judgment and sentence or subsequent 30 order to pay a statement that a notice of payroll deduction is to be immediately issued. If the court chooses not to order the immediate 31 issuance of a notice of payroll deduction at sentencing, the court 32 shall add to the judgment and sentence or subsequent order to pay a 33 34 statement that a notice of payroll deduction may be issued or other income-withholding action may be taken, without further notice to the 35 36 offender if a monthly court-ordered legal financial obligation payment is not paid when due, and an amount equal to or greater than the amount 37 38 payable for one month is owed.

- (4) All legal financial obligations that are ordered as a result of a conviction for a felony, may also be enforced in the same manner as a judgment in a civil action by the party or entity to whom the legal financial obligation is owed. Restitution collected through civil enforcement must be paid through the registry of the court and must be distributed proportionately according to each victim's loss when there is more than one victim. The judgment and sentence shall identify the party or entity to whom restitution is owed so that the state, party, or entity may enforce the judgment. These obligations may be enforced at any time during the ten-year period following the offender's release from total confinement or within ten years of entry of the judgment and sentence, whichever period is longer. Prior to the expiration of the initial ten-year period, the superior court may extend the criminal judgment an additional ten years for payment of legal financial obligations including crime victims' assessments. If jurisdiction under the criminal judgment is extended, the department is not responsible for supervision of the offender during the subsequent period. Independent of the department, the party or entity to whom the legal financial obligation is owed shall have the authority to utilize any other remedies available to the party or entity to collect the legal financial obligation.
- (5) In order to assist the court in setting a monthly sum that the offender must pay during the period of supervision, the offender is required to report to the department for purposes of preparing a recommendation to the court. When reporting, the offender is required, under oath, to truthfully and honestly respond to all questions concerning present, past, and future earning capabilities and the location and nature of all property or financial assets. The offender is further required to bring any and all documents as requested by the department.
- 38 (6) After completing the investigation, the department shall make 39 a report to the court on the amount of the monthly payment that the offender should be required to make towards a satisfied legal financial obligation.

- 3 (7) During the period of supervision, the department may make a 4 recommendation to the court that the offender's monthly payment schedule be modified so as to reflect a change in financial 5 circumstances. If the department sets the monthly payment amount, the 6 7 department may modify the monthly payment amount without the matter 8 being returned to the court. Also, during the period of supervision, 9 the offender may be required at the request of the department to report 10 to the department for the purposes of reviewing the appropriateness of the collection schedule for the legal financial obligation. 11 this reporting, the offender is required under oath to truthfully and 12 13 honestly respond to all questions concerning earning capabilities and the location and nature of all property or financial assets. Also, the 14 15 offender is required to bring any and all documents as requested by the department in order to prepare the collection schedule. 16
- 17 (8) After the judgment and sentence or payment order is entered, the department shall for any period of supervision be authorized to 18 19 collect the legal financial obligation from the offender. Any amount 20 collected by the department shall be remitted daily to the county clerk for the purposes of disbursements. The department is authorized to 21 accept credit cards as payment for a legal financial obligation, and 22 23 any costs incurred related to accepting credit card payments shall be 24 the responsibility of the offender.
- (9) The department or any obligee of the legal financial obligation may seek a mandatory wage assignment for the purposes of obtaining satisfaction for the legal financial obligation pursuant to RCW 9.94A.2001.
- 29 (10) The requirement that the offender pay a monthly sum towards a 30 legal financial obligation constitutes a condition or requirement of a 31 sentence and the offender is subject to the penalties as provided in 32 RCW 9.94A.200 for noncompliance.
- 33 (11) The county clerk shall provide the department with 34 individualized monthly billings for each offender with an unsatisfied 35 legal financial obligation and shall provide the department with notice 36 of payments by such offenders no less frequently than weekly.
- 37 Sec. 6. RCW 13.40.145 and 1995 c 275 s 4 are each amended to read 38 as follows:

Upon disposition or at the time of a modification or at the time an appellate court remands the case to the trial court following a ruling in favor of the state the court may order the juvenile or a parent or another person legally obligated to support the juvenile to appear, and the court may inquire into the ability of those persons to pay a reasonable sum representing in whole or in part the fees for legal services provided by publicly funded counsel and the costs incurred by the public in producing a verbatim report of proceedings and clerk's papers for use in the appellate courts.

 If, after hearing, the court finds the juvenile, parent, or other legally obligated person able to pay part or all of the attorney's fees and costs incurred on appeal, the court may enter such order or decree as is equitable and may enforce the order or decree by execution, or in any way in which a court of equity may enforce its decrees.

In no event may the court order an amount to be paid for attorneys' fees that exceeds the average per case fee allocation for juvenile proceedings in the county where the services have been provided or the average per case fee allocation for juvenile appeals established by the Washington supreme court.

In any case in which there is no compliance with an order or decree of the court requiring a juvenile, parent, or other person legally obligated to support the juvenile to pay for legal services provided by publicly funded counsel, the court may, upon such person or persons being properly summoned or voluntarily appearing, proceed to inquire into the amount due upon the order or decree and enter judgment for that amount against the defaulting party or parties. Judgment shall be docketed in the same manner as are other judgments for the payment of money.

The county in which such judgments are entered shall be denominated the judgment creditor, and the judgments may be enforced by the prosecuting attorney of that county. Any moneys recovered thereon shall be paid into the registry of the court and shall be disbursed to such person, persons, agency, or governmental entity as the court finds entitled thereto.

Such judgments shall remain valid and enforceable for a period of ten years subsequent to entry.

When the juvenile reaches the age of eighteen or at the conclusion of juvenile court jurisdiction, whichever occurs later, the superior court clerk must docket the remaining balance of the juvenile's legal

- 4 seek extension of the judgment for legal financial obligations,
- 5 including crime victims' assessments, in the same manner as RCW
- 6 6.17.020 for purposes of collection as allowed under RCW 36.18.190.
