State of Washington

55th Legislature

1997 Regular Session

By House Committee on Trade & Economic Development (originally sponsored by Representatives Schoesler, Sheahan, Doumit, Morris, Tokuda, Kessler, Scott and Dickerson; by request of Department of Community, Trade, and Economic Development)

Read first time 02/27/97.

1 AN ACT Relating to a rural development council; adding new sections
2 to chapter 43.31 RCW; and providing an expiration date.

3 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

4 NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 43.31 RCW
5 to read as follows:

6 (1) The Washington state rural development council is established 7 and governed by an executive committee consisting of eleven members, 8 appointed by the governor. The members will include representatives
9 from the following categories: Business; natural resources;
10 agriculture; environment; economic development; education; health;
11 human services; counties; cities; and tribal governments.

12 (2) New members of the executive committee are appointed for terms 13 of three years from the current membership list of the rural 14 development council, as much as possible. Committee members should be 15 people who either live, work, or provide direct services in rural 16 areas. As a transition strategy for the council, four representatives 17 (business, counties, health, agriculture) will be appointed in 1997, 18 four (human services, natural resources, cities, environment) in 1998,

1 and three (economic development, tribal government, education) in 1999.
2 The new council will be fully formed in 1999.

3 (3) The governor may make appointments from a list of candidates
4 generated by the executive committee. The executive committee shall 5 generate a list of at least three but not more than six candidates from 6 recommendations from state-wide associations. The list of candidates
7 for the county representative shall be generated by the Washington
8 state association of counties. The list of candidates for the city
9 representative shall be generated by the association of Washington 10 cities. In making appointments, the governor shall consider an 11 equitable geographic distribution.

12 (4) Members of the Washington state rural development council shall 13 receive no compensation for their services, but shall be eligible to 14 receive reimbursement for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050
15 and 43.03.060.

16 (5) The department of community, trade, and economic development
17 may provide staff support, administrative assistance, and office space 18 to the council as available.

19 (6) The Washington state rural development council executive 20 committee is authorized to establish operating procedures, policies, 21 and bylaws, and appoint committees. In addition, the executive 22 committee is responsible for hiring, evaluating, and if necessary, 23 firing the executive director according to state policies and rules.

24 (7) The Washington state rural development council is directed to:
25 Inform legislators, the governor's office, state agencies, and federal 26 agencies about the rural perspective on community development issues; 27 identify and in some cases develop recommended improvements to existing 28 resource delivery systems; and serve as a liaison or intermediary
29 between rural communities and public and private resource providers.
30 The council's mission is to improve the delivery and accessibility of 31 public and private resources to meet the needs of rural communities.

32 NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 43.31 RCW
33 to read as follows:

34 The legislature encourages state agencies to contribute financially
35 to the rural development council. In addition to the United States
36 department of agriculture and the state department of community, trade, 37 and economic development, all state agencies, federal agencies, and 38 state-wide associations that make a significant financial contribution

1 to the rural development council shall be ex officio members. In 2 particular, state agencies serving rural areas, including the 3 departments of agriculture, fish and wildlife, ecology, employment 4 security, health, natural resources, social and health services, and 5 transportation, and the utilities and transportation commission, are 6 encouraged to contribute financially. Financial contributions from 7 state agencies along with those from the private sector and state-wide 8 associations will enable the rural development council to leverage
9 federal funds at a three-to-one ratio annually.

10 NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Sections 1 and 2 of this act expire June 30, 11 2003.
