
SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL 1973

State of Washington

55th Legislature

1997 Regular Session

By House Committee on Law & Justice (originally sponsored by Representatives Wolfe, Lambert, Gombosky, Scott, Carrell, Keiser, Hatfield, Blalock, Gardner, Tokuda, Cole and Anderson)

Read first time 03/03/97.

1 AN ACT Relating to a grandparent's visitation rights; and amending
2 RCW 26.09.240.

3 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

4 Sec. 1. RCW 26.09.240 and 1996 c 177 s 1 are each amended to read 5 as follows:

6 (1)(a) A person other than a parent may petition the court for 7 visitation with a child at any time or may intervene in a pending
8 dissolution, legal separation, or modification of parenting plan
9 proceeding. Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, a 10 person other than a parent may not petition for visitation under this 11 section unless the child's parent or parents have commenced an action 12 under this chapter.

13 ~~((+2))~~ (b) A petition for visitation with a child by a person
14 other than a parent must be filed in the county in which the child 15 resides.

16 ~~((+3))~~ (c) A petition for visitation or a motion to intervene 17 pursuant to this section shall be dismissed unless the petitioner or 18 intervenor can demonstrate by clear and convincing evidence that a 19 significant relationship exists with the child with whom visitation is

1 sought. If the petition or motion is dismissed for failure to 2 establish the existence of a significant relationship, the petitioner 3 or intervenor shall be ordered to pay reasonable attorney's fees and 4 costs to the parent, parents, other custodian, or representative of the 5 child who responds to this petition or motion.

6 ~~((4))~~ (d) The court may order visitation between the petitioner
7 or intervenor and the child between whom a significant relationship 8 exists upon a finding supported by the evidence that the visitation is 9 in the child's best interests.

10 ~~((5)(a))~~ (e)(i) Visitation with a grandparent shall be presumed 11 to be in the child's best interests when a significant relationship has 12 been shown to exist. This presumption may be rebutted by a
13 preponderance of evidence showing that visitation would endanger the 14 child's physical, mental, or emotional health.

15 ~~((b))~~ (ii) If the court finds that reasonable visitation by a 16 grandparent would be in the child's best interest except for 17 hostilities that exist between the grandparent and one or both of the 18 parents or person with whom the child lives, the court may set the 19 matter for mediation under RCW 26.09.015.

20 ~~((6))~~ (f) The court may consider the following factors when 21 making a determination of the child's best interests:

22 ~~((a))~~ (i) The strength of the relationship between the child and 23 the petitioner;

24 ~~((b))~~ (ii) The relationship between each of the child's parents 25 or the person with whom the child is residing and the petitioner;

26 ~~((c))~~ (iii) The nature and reason for either parent's objection
27 to granting the petitioner visitation;

28 ~~((d))~~ (iv) The effect that granting visitation will have on the 29 relationship between the child and the child's parents or the person 30 with whom the child is residing;

31 ~~((e))~~ (v) The residential time sharing arrangements between the 32 parents;

33 ~~((f))~~ (vi) The good faith of the petitioner;

34 ~~((g))~~ (vii) Any criminal history or history of physical, 35 emotional, or sexual abuse or neglect by the petitioner; and

36 ~~((h))~~ (viii) Any other factor relevant to the child's best 37 interest.

38 ~~((7))~~ (g) The restrictions of RCW 26.09.191 that apply to parents 39 shall be applied to a petitioner or intervenor who is not a parent.

1 The nature and extent of visitation, subject to these restrictions, is
2 in the discretion of the court.

3 ~~((+8+))~~ (h) The court may order an investigation and report
4 concerning the proposed visitation or may appoint a guardian ad litem
5 as provided in RCW 26.09.220.

6 ~~((+9+))~~ (i) Visitation granted pursuant to this section shall be 7 incorporated into the parenting plan for the child.

8 ~~((+10+))~~ (j) The court may modify or terminate visitation rights
9 granted pursuant to this section in any subsequent modification action 10 upon a showing that the visitation is no longer in the best interest of 11 the child.

12 (2) A grandparent may petition the superior court for visitation 13 with a child if the parent of the child who is the son or daughter of 14 the grandparent is deceased. The petition must be filed in the county 15 in which the child resides.

16 (a) The court shall order visitation between the grandparent and 17 the child upon a finding supported by the evidence that the visitation 18 is in the child's best interest.

19 (b)(i) Visitation with a grandparent is presumed to be in the 20 child's best interest when a significant relationship exists between 21 the child and the grandparent. This presumption may be rebutted by a 22 preponderance of evidence showing that visitation would endanger the 23 child's physical, mental, or emotional health.

24 (ii) If the court finds that reasonable visitation by a grandparent
25 would be in the child's best interest except for hostilities that exist
26 between the grandparent and the parent or a person with whom the child 27 lives, the court may set the matter for mediation.

28 (c) The court may consider the factors enumerated in subsection
29 (1)(e) of this section when making a determination of the child's best 30 interests.

31 (d) The restrictions of RCW 26.09.191 that apply to visitation by 32 parents are applied to a grandparent petitioning under this subsection.
33 The nature and extent of visitation, subject to these restrictions, is 34 in the discretion of the court.

35 (e) The court may order an investigation and report concerning the 36 proposed visitation or may appoint a guardian ad litem.

1 (f) The court may modify or terminate visitation rights granted
2 pursuant to this section in any subsequent action upon a showing that 3 the visitation is no longer in the child's best interest.
