Brief Title: Creating the border county higher education opportunity pilot project.

HB 1005-S - DIGEST

(AS OF HOUSE 2ND READING 3/13/97)

Creates a pilot project on resident tuition rates and financial aid portability for students residing in certain border counties in Washington and Oregon.

Provides that this act takes effect at the beginning of the academic term following the enactment of legislation in Oregon that permits Washington residents domiciled in Clark county for at least ninety days immediately before enrollment to pay resident tuition rates at public institutions of higher education located in Multnomah county, Oregon.

Expires June 30, 2001.
