Brief Title: Prohibiting the use of public funds to provide benefits to domestic partners.

HB 2076 - DIGEST

Provides that adult persons living in domestic relationships, other than a relationship recognized as a valid marriage within the state of Washington, may not be considered, in law or otherwise, as a legal spouse or as constituting a family for the purpose of qualifying for, or receiving, spousal or marital benefits, privileges, advantages, or entitlements that are paid for, directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, with public funds.
