

2367

Sponsor(s): Representatives Carlson, Radcliff and Sullivan

Brief Title: Changing provisions relating to interest on judgments.

HB 2367 - DIGEST

Declares that financial obligations imposed in a judgment in a criminal case shall bear interest from the date of the judgment until payment is paid in full. Interest rates on judgments shall not exceed six percent in any twelve-month period.