Brief Title: Granting water rights to certain persons who were water users before January 1, 1993.

HB 2775 - DIGEST

Provides that if a person placed surface or ground water to beneficial use before January 1, 1993, for irrigation, stock watering, or domestic use supplied by a public water supply system with one hundred fifty or fewer service connections for which a permit or certificate was not issued by the department or its predecessors, the person or the public water supply system, or their respective successors may continue to use water in the amount that has been beneficially used if designated conditions are made.
