Brief Title: Implementing the federal personal responsibility and work opportunity reconciliation act of 1996.

SB 5677-S - DIGEST

(SUBSTITUTED FOR - SEE 2ND SUB)

Finds that Washington state's goals in implementing the federal act include promoting the values of work, education, and responsibility, including responsible childbearing and dedication by both parents to protecting, supporting, and bringing up children to become responsible, productive Americans.

Finds that it is necessary, in pursuance of these goals, to encourage a new alliance of state and local government, business, nonprofit organizations, and individuals to dedicate themselves, within the letter and the spirit of the law, to helping families in poverty overcome barriers, obtain support, direction, and encouragement, and become contributors to the American way of life.

Reaffirms the commitment to provide medical services to eligible legal immigrants under the children's health program established under RCW 74.04.405, and affirms the commitment to provide the benefits of the maternity care access program under RCW 74.09.800 to documented and undocumented immigrants who qualify.
