Brief Title: Revising disclosure of public records regarding child abuse investigations.

SB 5967 - DIGEST

Declares that investigative records do not include records pertaining to the abuse of a child or the investigation of the abuse of a child if: (1) The subject of the report has been charged in an accusatory instrument with committing a crime;

(2) there has been a prior knowing, voluntary public disclosure by an individual concerning a report of child abuse in which such individual is named as the subject of the report; or

(3) the child named in the report has died.
