Brief Title: Increasing penalties for specified crimes against children.

SB 6672 - DIGEST

Declares that a person convicted of a crime against a child must be punished by confinement and fine to be no less than the following: (1) By confinement in a state correctional institution for a term of life imprisonment without the possibility of parole; and

(2) by a fine of no less than one hundred thousand dollars.

Declares that, for purposes of this act, a "crime against a child" is designated as one of the following: (1) Rape of a child in the first degree;

(2) child molestation in the first degree; or

(3) homicide by abuse, if the victim is under sixteen years of age.
