

8000

Sponsor(s): Senator Hochstatter

Brief Title: Encouraging teacher literacy.

SJM 8000 - DIGEST

Requests that the State Board of Education amend its proposed rule and other appropriate provisions to the Washington Administrative Code to provide that all graduates from the state's colleges of education will have completed coursework to assure their literacy in the essential academic learning requirements, and that all K-12 teachers in the state will, within the near future, complete in-service training programs to accomplish this essential professional competence.