6 "NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. For the year 2000 only, in addition to 7 having special elections that may be held on the date of the 8 presidential preference primary, as well as on the normal special 9 election dates in April, May, September, and November as provided under 10 RCW 29.13.010 and 29.13.020, one other special election may be held in 11 the months of February or March as provided in this section. By 12 December 1, 1999, each county auditor shall determine whether this 13 additional special election date may be held on the first Tuesday after 14 the first Monday in February or on the third Tuesday in March, in 2000.
15 If a school district is located in more than one county, this 16 additional special election date must be the same in each county in 17 which the school district is located. The secretary of state shall be 18 the final arbitrator, if the county auditors of counties in which such 19 a school district is located cannot agree on a common date for the 20 additional special election, and shall determine the date of the 21 additional special election in those counties by December 15, 1999.

22 This section expires July 1, 2000."
